UNION SURFING BREAK PRES

The 12th La Union Surf- Downhill Break Biking ing Break (LUSB12) held Competition. The event was last October 27-29, 2017 at the shores of Urbiztondo, San Juan and Galongen-Quirino in Bacnotan, La Union, was indeed a weekend of music, party, food, surfing and a new wave of activities. The annual 3-day beach festival was a massive celebration of the beach and surf lifestyle attracting thousands and exponentially growing every year.

This year's event was highlighted by various activities presented by the Provincial Government of La Union (PGLU), organized by La Union Conventions and Visitors Bureau (LUCVB) and for the benefit of LU Soul. Activities such as Grub Crawl, Comedy Break and the euphoric feeling of the New Wave Live Music Festival made everyone party all night. Local products were also offered in the Ridge to Reef Community Market in Urbiz Gardens for those who wanted to bring home not just memories, but souvenirs from the event.

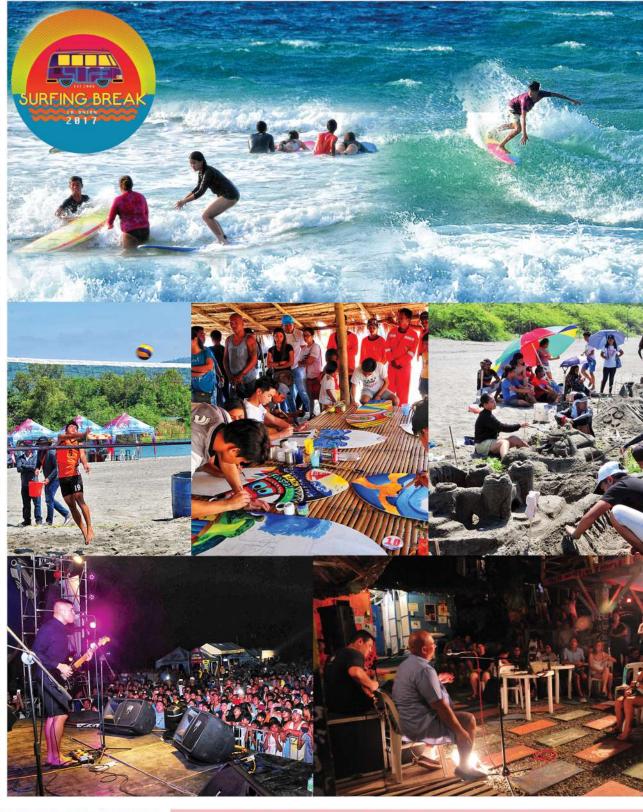

As part of the advocacy of LUSB, both locals and tourists welcomed the sea turtles this season through Mangrove Planting and Pawikan Workshop in the Sustainably Stoked Eco Tourism Movement. It sets as a reminder that La Union is an active nesting site for pawikans and it is everyone's responsibility to help protect the fifth longest shoreline in the planet.

And for the 2nd time in LUSB's history, La Union Adventure Team (LUAT) partnered with the organizers as they battle it out for the Meanwhile, tourists and party-goers gathered at Galongen-Quirino Beach for the Beach Break Bacnotan Beach Fiesta. Elimination for Beach Volleyball happened during the day and a Beach Party with the band Hale in the evening marked the opening of the LUSB12-Bacnotan Leg. On the next day, various activities were conducted simultaneously such as the launching of Kayak Adventure, Surfboard Paddling Race, Sand Castle Building Contest, Surfboard Design Competition and Beach Volleyball Championship Tournament which were participated in by surfers, individuals, schools and local government units.

LUSB12 is a multisectoral tourism event jointly organized by the Provincial Government of La Union (PGLU), Department of Tourism-Region 1 (DOT-R1), La Union Conventions and Visitors Bureau (LUCVB), Municipality of San Juan, Municipality of Bacnotan and La Union Surf Club (LUSC). The event was also supported by Philippine National Police (PNP), Philippine Red Cross- La Union Chapter, and Philippine Coast Guard (PCG). This year's event sponsors were San Miguel Corporation, TPLEX, Havaianas, Northern Cement, Klean Kanteen, ABONO PartyList and San Juan Resort Restaurant and Hotel Association (SJRRHASS). - Darlene Joy V. On its seventh year, the Provincial Government of La Union headed by Gov. Francisco Emmanuel "Pacoy" R. Ortega III held its 7th Ayat Festival which officially opened on September 15, 2017 in Agoo, La Union with the theme, "Sangsangkamaysa a Panagpitik Dagiti Puso nga Agay-Ayat iti La Union."

To introduce a festive ambiance during the opening of the Ayat Festival, the Street Dancing Competition and La Union - Henio Elimination Round were unrolled. The street dancing was participated in by group of students from the various municipalities in the province while the La Union Henio, which was adopted from the classic game Pinoy Henio of Eat Bulaga but used Ilokano words, was participated in by pairs of students from the elementary and secondary levels.

On September 19, the Salip ti Deklamasion and Ilokano Chorale - Elimination Round were held at the Diego Silang Hall, Provincial Capitol simultaneous with the Iskrabiloko Competition at Don Pacov Gymnasium, San Fernando City, La Union. The Salip ti Deklamasion is a competition for Elementary and High School students who rendered piece in the Ilokano language while the Ilokano Chorale is a competition for group of secondary students who sang either Contemporary Ilokano Songs, adaptation of English/Filipino songs and original Iloko song compositions. The Iskrabiloko, an Ilokano version of Scrabble, was joined inby secondary level students and adults.

The festival culminated on October 10, 2017 at Diego Silang Hall, Provincial Capitol where the finals of the Ilokano Chorale and La Union Henio took place. The awarding ceremony for the different activities followed immediately in the afternoon.

Crislyn M. Pastor & Jacquelyn R. Ustari of Burgos for the High School category and Lorenzo L. Bacani & Ruth R. Bacani of Bauang for the Adult Category emerged as champion for the Iskrabiloko; Naoemi B. Del Moral of Sudipen and Erich Jean J. Cuello of Bauang for the Salip ti Deklamasion in the elementary and secondary levels respectively; Kyl Cassey M. Angala & Divine B. Macanas of Sudipen and Robelson Anderson & Alvin Cabanela of San Juan for La Union Henio; the municipality of Santo Tomas for the Street Dancing Competition and the Municipality of Bauang for the Ilokano Chorale. Winners received cash prize and trophy awarded by Vice Governor Aureo Augusto Nisce and Office of the Governor -Chief of Staff Ms. Geraldine Joy Ortega.

The Ayat festival aims to boost La Union's local language, culture, and showcase local talents in line with the celebration of Tourism Month and Culture month conducted during September and October, respectively.
